Is That a Fish in Your Ear?: Translation and the Meaning of Everything

By Bellos, David

Faber & Faber, 2012. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service!
 Summary: "[Bellos] offers an anthropology of translation acts. But through this anthropology a much grander project emerges. The old theories were elegiac, stately; they were very much severe. Bellos is practical, and sprightly. He is unseduced by elegy. And this is because he is onto something new . . . Dazzlingly inventive." Adam Thirlwell, The New York Times "In the guise of a book about translation this is a richly original cultural history . . . A book for anyone interested in words, language and cultural anthropology. Mr Bellos's fascination with his subject is itself endlessly fascinating." The Economist "For anyone with a passing interest in language this work is enthralling . . . A wonderful celebration of the sheer diversity of language and the place it occupies in human endeavour. Conducted by a man who clearly knows his stuff, it is a whirlwind tour round the highways and byways of translation in all its glorious forms, from literary fiction to car repair manuals, from the Nuremberg trials to decoding at Bletchley Park." The Scotsman "Bellos has numerous paradoxes, anecdotes and witty solutions..."
