And she looked with a loving smile at the poor little child, whose heart was ready to break with guilt, grief, and fear. Nonie was called in, and she amused Jakie while the others moved all the articles, small and great, that the shop contained. The pawnbroker and his wife searched diligently for the lost jewel, while Hessed and Alice pretended to be as eager, the latter feeling as if she was acting a dreadful lie, but not daring to do otherwise. When the unsuccessful search was concluded, Mrs. Streck, not willing to give up the matter, said, You are wiser than I am, Mordecai, but there are great cracks in this floor, and I am thinking the ring has fallen through; can t the boards be lifted? Yes, it shall be done on the morrow, replied the mournful husband, who...
