Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of the 88th Pennsylvania Volunteers in the War for the Union, 1861-1865, Vol. 5 This book is a record of the services of the soldiers of the 88th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry in the War for the Union. It is briefly told in army vernacular; and while the historian is conscious of many imperfections, he has tried to indite a true and impartial narrative, and asks his comrades to skip the blemishes and look for excellences, if happily any can be found. He tenderly dedicates the work to his living comrades and to the sacred memories of those who have laid down the armor and joined the vast army in the eternal encampment beyond the silent river. The author is under obligations to Adjutant Cyrus S. Detre for the regiment's General Order Book from October 7, 1861, to May 11, 1863, and for the Morning Reports until January 17, 1864. From these books the official record has been gathered, elaborated from the historian's daily diary, covering more than three years of the time;...
