Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bench and Bar: A Complete Digest of the Wit, Humor, Asperities, and Amenities of the Law Well planned and well written, the story of the Great Seal would be a rare story, says John Cordy Jeaffreson in his delightful Book about Lawyers. Thoroughly collected and well arranged, thought I, the anecdotes of the Bench and Bar would make a popular book, not only with lawyers but the general reader; and this volume is the result of that idea. The field was a much wider one than I supposed when I began the work of collection, but it has been faithfully gleaned; and while some may have been overlooked which were well worthy of preservation, I trust that the best specimens of legal wit, humor, and incidents have been gathered in the following pages.
