Little Thunder answers a mysterious call and sets off on a quest - alone. Little Thunder is quite an astounding pony, and he and Yakari truly are the best of friends. So when Yakari wakes up one morning, and discovers that his mount has left the village, the young Sioux boy is devastated. He tries to find his friend, but is forced to give up as the trail grows cold: whatever it is that drives Little Thunder, he's heading due south as fast as he can. What is it that calls out to him? Derib and Job have been writing Yakari stories for over 30 years and have both received lifetime achievement awards for their outstanding work. At the comics festival at Angoulême in 2006, Yakari won the 'youth prize 7-8 years'. 'A must-have for parents who want to introduce their children to graphic novels - as well as for anyone who appreciates great storytelling' [Penny Kenny, Comicsbulletin]. Key Points: * Hugely popular series translated into 17 languages, with 4 million copies sold in France since its creation * The easy-to-read text appeals to children, especially reluctant readers * A 'green comic': The hero is very close to nature, and the series promotes animal and nature awareness * Perfect for the school and library markets. Yakari is a little Indian, courageous and generous, whose happy life all children would like to share.
